

Common sharks and rays of East Africa

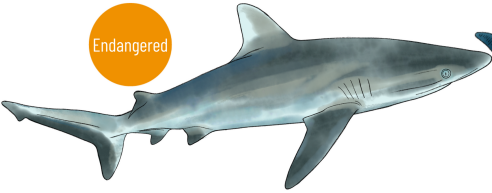

Bluespotted Ribbontail stingray
Local name: Nyenga | Scientific name:
Taeniura lymma
Max length: 70cm

Least concern

Reef manta ray
Local name: Taachui |
Scientific name: Manta alfredi
Max length: 500cm

Vulnerable

Grey reef shark
Local name: | Scientific name:
Carcharhinus amblyrhynchos
Max length: 255cm

Endangered

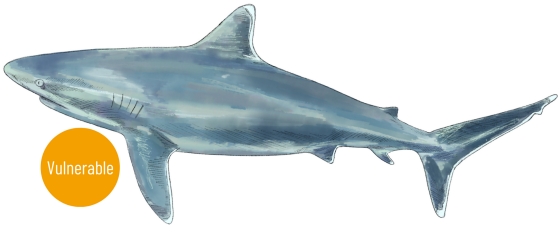

Bull shark
Local name: Papa sumbwe | Scientific name: Carcharhinus leucus
Max length: 340cm

Vulnerable

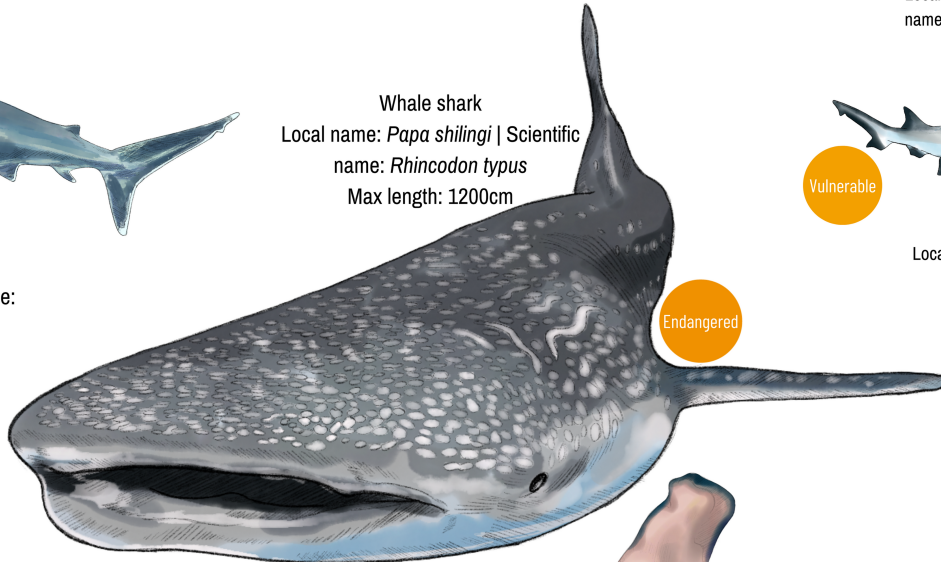

Blacktip reef shark
Local name: Pezi weusi | Scientific name: Carcharhinus melanopterus
Max length: 180cm

Vulnerable

Silvertip reef shark
Local name: Marimbe | Scientific name:
Carcharhinus albimarginatus
Max length: 300cm

Vulnerable

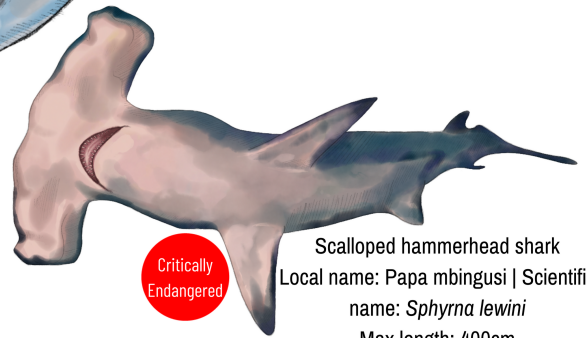

Whale shark
Local name: Papa shilingi | Scientific name: Rhincodon typus
Max length: 1200cm

Endangered

Whitetip reef shark
Local name: Papa siruanzi | Scientific name: Triaenodon obesus
Max length: 160cm

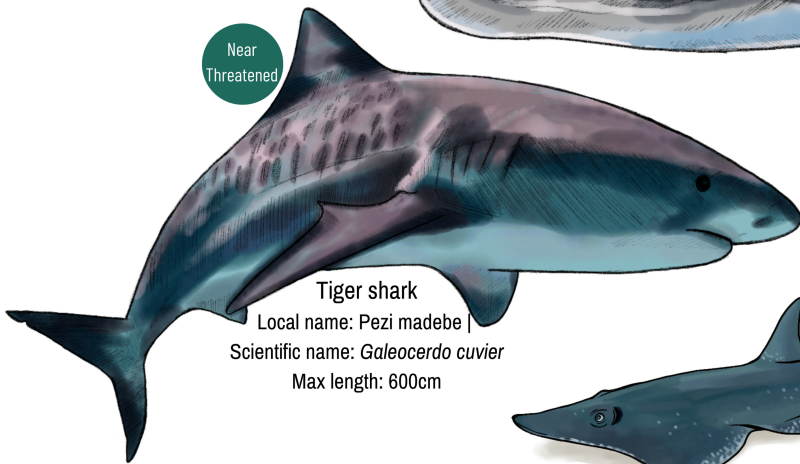

Vulnerable

Scalloped hammerhead shark
Local name: Papa mbingusi | Scientific name: Sphyrna lewini
Max length: 400cm

Critically Endangered

Near Threatened

Tiger shark
Local name: Pezi madebe |
Scientific name: Galeocerdo cuvier
Max length: 600cm

Giant Guitarfish
Local name: Papa charawanza |
Scientific name: Rhynchobatus djiddensis
Max length: 300cm

Critically Endangered

Spotted Eagle ray
Local name: Kipungu/ Taachui |
Scientific name: Aetobatus narinari
Max length: 330cm

Endangered

Zebra/ Leopard shark
Local name: Papa chindi | Scientific name: Stegostoma tigrinum
Max length: 235cm

Endangered

Commonly sighted sharks and rays of East Africa.

CORDIO East Africa | Coral Reef Care | Layout and illustrations: Frank Rogan, Bado Blak

Contributors: Peter Musembi, Dr. Melita Samoily; (CORDIO East Africa), and Rolf Voorhuis (Coral Reef Care)

Poster produced to highlight the common sharks and rays, IUCN threat status.

